THIRD AVE. LINE TELLS CONDUCTORS TO BE MORE POLITE

When Asked "Why the Delay?" Orders Are to Make Civil Answers.

At fast one railway in New York City is attempting to brings only looks of contempt conductors and motor-

This became known when in order was posted by Supt. George Murphy of the Third Avenue surface line as follows: We want to bring to the attention of motormen and enductors another way of howing courtesy-namely, by informing passengers of the causes for all delays.

"When a delay occurs passengers are as anxious as you to know the cause and if it is likely to be extended. Acts such as these show your conmideration and help to create a better feeling on the part of the travelling public."
